

Psalm 45:1

My heart is inditing a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made touching the King: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.
Amen.

The Baby Sitter

Alone, alone at two years old, Lord why am I feeling this way. For I listen to my mother day after day and even hear the words that she prays.

Again, here I stand with unfamiliar folk and they are looking directly at me, so I'll take up for myself the Whole Armour of God, and declare this one a victory.

Stand, I say, with the Belt of Truth and the Breast Plate of Righteousness declaring who; Who shall execute judgement from his mercy seat as his feet are prepared with the Gospel of Peace.

Above all he declares that I have Faith, quenching firey darts aimed straight at my face.

The Helmet of Salvation protects my mind as I stand in the dark corner waiting for my mother to come home from work. The Sword of the Spirit is God's Holy Word which I carry with me so God's voice is heard.

It is God Almighty who clothed me this day, and it is he who clothes me from day to day.

In the name of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour and the precious blood of the Lamb which never loses its power.

Goodmorning babysitter: How are you.
